and all disputes brought by prospective members resulting from claims for personal injury, claims for damages to property, or disputes of any nature that cannot be resolved within the Society, including those arising from the membership intake process, will be referred to arbitration. Any grievances and disputes regarding membership intake should be referred to the Membership Coordinator for investigation and resolution. The prospective member specifically agrees to follow all of the rules, regulations, and guidelines relating to the intake process. The prospective member further agrees to report in writing any infractions and violations of the rules, regulations, and guidelines relating to the intake process. The prospective member acknowledges that Pi Rho Sigma Military Society, Incorporated is an international organization with entities located throughout the United States of America and abroad. The prospective member recognizes by making this application for membership she agrees to the foregoing matters. The prospective member understands that this agreement has an effect on interstate commerce and is subject to the Federal Arbitration Act. The prospective Inquirer, his heirs and assigns, and Pi Rho Sigma Military Society, Incorporated, its officers, employees, agents, affiliates, chapters, colonies and members, agree that any and all disputes, conflicts, claims, and/or causes of action of any kind whatsoever, including but not limited to: contract claims, personal injury claims, bodily injury claims, injury to character claims, and property damage claims arising out of or relating in any manner whatsoever to membership of Pi Rho Sigma Military Society, Incorporated or to the membership intake process shall be subject to and resolved by compulsory and binding arbitration under the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. Section 1, et seq., and the commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association.

Anti-Hazing Policy

Pi Rho Sigma Military Society, Inc. strictly prohibits hazing in any form whether physical or mental as a term or condition of membership in the organization. Hazing is illegal and a crime in most jurisdictions. Inquirers to the organization should participate only in the sanctioned membership process of the Society. Inquirers must not agree to submit to hazing in order to obtain Society membership.

Pledging has been officially abolished as a means of obtaining membership in Pi Rho Sigma and pledge "lines" have been officially abolished by the Society. Inquirers must not submit themselves, or agree to submit themselves, to any membership activities that are prohibited by the Society. Members of Pi Rho Sigma are forbidden from requiring any Inquirer to engage in prohibited membership activities. Members of Pi Rho Sigma are not authorized to require any Inquirer to engage in prohibited membership activities.

All official contact and correspondence to the Inquirer regarding membership intake will come from the Global Headquarters of Pi Rho Sigma Society, Inc. via the Director of Membership Services. The only official and sanctioned contact regarding intake is outlined for the Inquirer in the Society's description of the "MEMBERSHIP PROCESS". Inquirers should only participate in membership activities when the date, time and place have been established by the Global Headquarters. Further, no individual member or chapter of the Society may require additional or different terms or conditions of membership for an Inquirer or group of Inquirers. Inquirers should immediately report any infraction or irregularity in membership intake to the Corporate Headquarters.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION: "HAZING...is any action taken or situation created that involves or results in abusive physical contact or mental harassment of a prospective Society member. Any such action is considered HAZING whether it occurs on or off the Society premises, campus or place where chapters or prospective members meet. HAZING also is described as any action that results in excessive mental or physical discomfort, embarrassment or harassment. Such activities include, but are not limited to, paddling, creation of excessive fatigue, physical or psychological shock, morally degrading or humiliating activities, late work sessions that interfere with scholastic activities, and any other activities inconsistent with fraternal law and the regulations and policies of the affiliated educational institution and federal, state or local law. The above described actions are expressly forbidden. Members or chapters involved in such infractions are subject to disciplinary action." -THE STANDING ORDERS of Pi Rho Sigma Society, Inc.

Anyone who participates in hazing an Inquirer does not represent Pi Rho Sigma Society, Inc. Instead, that person will be considered a criminal by the Society. Any person who commits hazing is individually and personally liable to the victim and can be subject to a lawsuit for monetary damages. Individuals involved in hazing also face severe disciplinary action by the Society.

Pledging

NO Pledging Allowed. Pledging is against the purposes and goals of the Society and has been discontinued as a condition or manner of initiation into the membership of Pi Rho Sigma Society, Inc. It is no longer legal within Pi Rho Sigma for members to establish a "pledge line" or to require Inquirers to the organization to submit to "hazing". All membership intake activities for the Society are conducted by the National Intake Office and occur in the presence of a National Intake Officer.

Any grievances and disputes regarding membership intake should be referred to the National Intake Director for investigation and resolution. Inquirers to the organization agree to follow all rules, regulations and guidelines relating to the intake process. The Inquirer further agrees to report in writing any infractions and violations of the rules, regulations and guidelines relating to the intake process. Failure by the Inquirer to abide by the intake process or to report illegal activities may exclude the Inquirer from membership in the Society.
